

Burndown chart

Explanation:

The burndown chart for Sprint 2 is characterized by a steady upward line. It can be attributed to the team's continuous effort throughout the sprint period. As we had the reading week during the sprint duration, some team members were able to finish their parts in the first half of the sprint. Each user story was split up into 3-6 subtasks and all team members worked on those subtasks on a regular basis.